TWO WINNERS IN TO-DAY'S INTERCOLLEGIATE GAMES.

McLanahan YALE MAN TIED FOR FIRST PLACE IN POLO VAULT.

TWO RECORDS BROKEN IN INTERCOLLEGIATE GAMES.

Taylor, of Penn., Establishes New Mark in 440—Yale's Team Winner of Meet.

(Special to the Evening World.) FRANKLIN FIELD, PHILADELPHIA, May 28.—Twenty thousand people saw the intercollegiate championships contested here to-day. Athletes of all the universities in the East strove for titles. Duffy, the champion sprinter, did not appear for his heat in the 100-yard dash. He said he had sprained a tendon in his ankle in yesterday's trials. Yale's team scored the greatest number of points.

Two intercollegiate records were broken. Taylor, of Pennsylvania, winning the quarter-mile dash in 9 1/2 minutes, created a new mark. The old record was 42:54, held by Maxey Long. Another intercollegiate record which went by the boards was that of the pole vault. The old mark was 11 feet 7 inches. To-day Gring, of Harvard; Gardner, of Syracuse; and McLanahan, of Yale, tied at 11 feet 7 1/2 inches. In a subsequent try for the record McLanahan vaulted 11 feet 9 inches.

Summary: 100-Yard Dash: Semi-finals—First heat won by Sheek, Harvard; second, Dartmouth. Final—First heat, time, 10:1-3s. Second heat, time, 10:1-3s. To-day Gring, of Harvard; Gardner, of Syracuse; and McLanahan, of Yale, tied at 11 feet 7 1/2 inches. In a subsequent try for the record McLanahan vaulted 11 feet 9 inches.

STAKE EVENTS FURNISH SENSATIONAL RACES

Augur Wins the Manhasset and Bryn Mawr the Preakness After Stirring Contests—30 to 1 Shot a Winner—20,000 at the Track.

The Preakness and Manhasset Stakes were offered as attractions for the holiday crowd at Gravesend this afternoon, and both furnished races of a sensational character, though won by favorites. The Preakness was for three-year-olds, and the Goughacre's Stable, Bryn Mawr, who ran Dehl to a lead in the Withers Stakes at Westchester, was a strong favorite. He was a 7 to 5 shot, when on form he should have been 1 to 2, but a great plunge on Flannula helped keep his price above what it should have been.

Bryn Mawr was off badly, while the contenders, Dolly Spunker and Wotan, were off flying. Bryn Mawr was far back when they swung into the back stretch, but he then got into his stride and passed horse after horse, finally taking a position in front of Dolly Spunker and Wotan.

Turning into the stretch Hildebrand took the rail and at the furlong pole he squeezed in between Dolly Spunker and the rail. For a moment it looked as if he would go over the fence, but he drew clear and won in a mild drive by a scant length. In a red-hot drive for the place, Wotan beat Dolly Spunker a length and a half for the place.

Andy Williams Leads Last. Himself made the running in the sixth, followed by Hilly and Hello. They ran this way to the stretch, where Hilly led away. Andy Williams then raced through on the rail and, staying there to the end, won easily by two lengths from Hilly, who beat Hello a length and a half for the place.

DELMAR FINISHES. (Special to the Evening World.) DELMAR RACE TRACK, ST. LOUIS, May 28.—The races held here to-day resulted as follows: FIRST RACE—Six and a half furlongs. Bryn Mawr, 20 to 1, and 3 to 1; Felton, 15 to 1; time, 1:25. SECOND RACE—Three-quarters of a mile. Wotan, 10 to 1; time, 2:10. THIRD RACE—One mile and seventy furlongs. Wotan, 10 to 1; time, 3:45. FOURTH RACE—One mile and seventy furlongs. Wotan, 10 to 1; time, 3:45. FIFTH RACE—One mile and seventy furlongs. Wotan, 10 to 1; time, 3:45. SIXTH RACE—One mile and seventy furlongs. Wotan, 10 to 1; time, 3:45. SEVENTH RACE—One mile and seventy furlongs. Wotan, 10 to 1; time, 3:45.

Grateful Wins the First. In the opening event everything was played except Grateful, and Grateful came home on the bit. Rosent was the choice, with Shot Gun most in favor. When they went away there was nothing to it but Grateful, for she squeezed in front of all the way, and won easily by three lengths from John P., who was a head in front of Jack Hatlin.

Judge Phillips was the choice in the steeplechase, and as is usual in these races, the favorite won. Flying Virginian and Princess Chic set a terrific pace, going wide on all turns. O'Brien voided the early pace with Judge Phillips, who made no move until the far turn, where he moved up and catching the tired Flying Virginian, won easily by four lengths from Flying Virginian, who was a length and a half in front of the Rugged Cavalier.

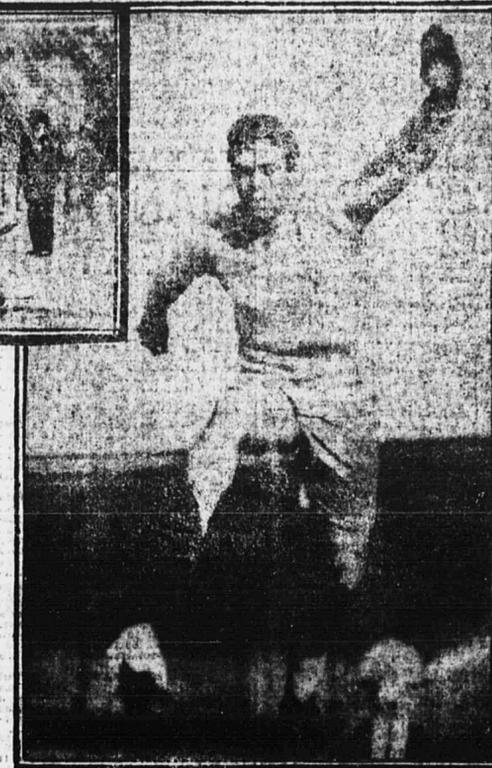

Augur Takes Manhasset. The talent about the second of the Manhasset, as a 1 1/2 horse race, between Diamond and Augur, at first the talent seemed inclined to take Diamond, but at the end they were taking Augur, so that the latter was a slight choice. Diamond went away in front, like a whiter and stayed there to the stretch.

WARNER'S HOME RUN WINS FOR GIANTS; AMERICANS WIN, TOO

Brooklyns Have Lead of a Run in Tenth Inning when Catcher Comes to Bat and Slams Out a Homer, Scoring Gilbert Ahead of Him.

Chesbro Was a Mystery to the Athletics in Philadelphia To-Day, and a Score of 1 to 0 Was the Result—Keeler Scored Only Run.

Warner's home run with Gilbert on first and one out in the Giants' half gave the local a sensational victory. Warner's drive went into the right field bleachers.

Philadelphia, May 28.—The Highlanders evaded up matters by taking the second game of the series from the Athletics to-day by 1 to 0. The home team could do nothing with Chesbro, who pitched a good game and received excellent support.

Plank, on the other hand, was erratic, and were it not for the snappy playing of the men behind him the visitors would have easily tallied more than one run.

In the last inning the Athletics put in two fresh men to bat, but Chesbro remained invincible and retired the side.

First Inning. Keeler met a similar fate at the hands of the same persunage. Williams struck out. NO RUNS.

Second Inning. Anderson reached second on M. Warner's home run with Gilbert on first and one out in the Giants' half gave the local a sensational victory.

Third Inning. Warner walked, but was an easy out. Chesbro struck out. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning. Warner struck out. NO RUNS.

Fifth Inning. Warner struck out. NO RUNS.
